Next Generation Radiology Workflow

The Next Generation of Radiology Workflow focuses on leveraging your enterprise EMR and providing the rich clinical and administrative solution your department needs to succeed.

Empower physicians

Medicalis' powerful automated scheduling engine allows physician offices to easily place orders online thus eliminating the hassles of inefficient paper schedules while enabling them to better focus their time and energy on their patients.

Scheduling is Key

Empty time slots equal lost revenue for imaging practices, and increased wait times for patients. Medicalis' Operations Solution optimizes your resources and capital equipment to efficiently deliver patient-centric care.
